Further Alarm.

PARIS, Oct. 5.—The Temps today publishes a message from Vienna saying that the Bulgarian army is marching toward the frontier and that the Turks also are moving forward to the encounter and Austria-Hungary is mobilizing two army corps.

No official confirmation had been received in Paris up to 6 o'clock this evening of the reported mobilization of the troops by Turkey and Bulgaria. It is believed here that Bulgaria will remain on the defensive.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 5.-Bulgaria, a tributary principality under the suserainty of the sultan of Turkey, today proclaimed its independence of Turkey.

This action was taken at Tirnovo by Prince Ferdinand, who was elected prince of Bulgaria in 1887. The Bulgarian cabinet was present with the prince, having met him yesterday at the frontier and journeyed with him to Tirnovo. The party reached Tirnovo last evening.

Tirnovo is the ancient capital of the kingdom of Bulgaria and it was there in the olden days that the kings of Bulgaria were crowned.

The proclamation of Bulgarian independence has been immediately preceded by conflict between Bulgaria and Turkey concerning control of the Oriental ratiroad in eastern Rumelia. Bulgaria took possession of this line in September because of a strike and started to operate it with its military forces. When the strike had been settled Bulgaria refused to return control to Turkey, which action led to a sharp conflict between the two states.

Both Sides Make Ready. spite of the peaceful endeavors of the powers concerned in this near eastern difficulty, the military forces of both Turkey and Bulgaria are preparing for eventualities. The Turkish army is stronger nu merically, but the Bulgarian army is in a better condition of efficiency. That all energies are being bent towards the maintenance of peace is clear. The foreign offices of Europe are keeping the hot today in an effort to find a basis of agreement astisfactory to the powers chiefly concerned that shall take the place of the treaty of Berlin. Rural Mail Messengers Hold Sixth Annual Convention Here.

MAY SEND CONGRESS A PETITION

Delegates Come from All Quarters and Several Squade Will Ask for the Next National Gathering.

The sixth annual convention of the National Rural Letter Carriers' association will be held in Orraha, opening morning and closing Friday morning, morning, afternoon and evening sesstons to be held each day. The sessions of the convention will be held in the convention hall of Hotel Rome and the Rome will be headquarters of the convention. The association is composed of mail carriers on free delivery routes throughout the country and delegates from the four corners of the United States arrived Monday, the officers expecting a total attendance during the week of between 1,000 and 1,500. The delegates will come and go and it is expected that there will not be more than 600 at any one meeting of the convention, though the officers, members of the executive committee and some of the delegates will remain throughout the entire conven-

The discussion of good roads will be a leading subject in the convention. President Paul L. Lindsay of Tucker, Ga., says one whole day will be given over to this one subject. The association may adopt a memorial to congress on this subject.

To Double Per Capita Tax.

Considerable discussion is also expected on the proposition to double the per capita tax of members of the association and the payment of the expenses of delegates, and President Lindsay says that he looks for a fight on the floor of the convention. The last convention decided to raise the per capita tax to $1 and to pay the expenses of delegates, but this has since met with considerable opposition and the sixth convention will be asked to overrule the action of the last meeting.

The convention will be called to order at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning. Addresses of welcome will be delivered by Governor Sheldon on behalf of the state and by Mayor Dahlman on behalf of the city. H. H. Windson, editor of the Rural Free Deliver News, will deliver the response to the addresses of welcome. In the afternoon the program calls for addresses by Senator Brown, Senator Burkett, Congressman Hinshaw, Congressman Hitchcock, Postmaster Thomas, Ashton C. Shallenberger and George Washington Berge. Committees will also be appointed at the afternoon session. Business of the Meeting. Tuesday evening the real work of the convention will begin, the program for that candidate for congress, will speak at the evening and the following three days being

TAFT IN MISSOURI

Republican Candidate Begins Two Days' Tour of State.

BIG CROWD AT ST. JOSEPH

Speech Made to Workingmen from Steps of Stock Exchange.

LABOR SITUATION ANALYZED

Stock Yards Meeting Followed by Address at Opera House.

PARTING WORDS FOR KANSAS

Stops Are Made Earlier in the Day at Kansas City, Leavenworth and Atchison-Speeches Made in Rain.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Oct., 5.-The real Taft invasion of Missouri began today at noon here. The candidate will speak constantly in the state until tomorrow night, concluding then with a demonstration at St. Louis. The first Missouri audience was composed almost entirely of voters, men who work in the stock yards at St. Joseph, where Mr. Taft spoke in the rain from the steps of the Stock exchange. He was presented by President John Donovan of the exchange. who said he did not appear under false pretenses. He was, he added, a democrat, but he knew Judge Taft to be a thorough American in every particular and to have a clean record of achievements. "And should he be elected president there is nothing I would not feel it a privilege to

This speech was received with cheers by the men, who not only filled the street in front of the exchange, but stood on the low roof of the stock yards opposite, Replying to Mr. Donovan, Mr. Taft thanked him for his courtesy and frankness, and

"The word democrat is an historical description. It does not mean that a man who is a democrat will always vote the ticket of his party."

Friend, Not Enemy of Labor. As is his usual custom to labor audiences Mr. Taft analyzed the labor situation with reference to the two parties. He referred briefly to his own labor record, and again declared himself to be the friend and not the enemy of labor. What he said was cheered, but there was noticeable on the edges of the crowd where his voice did not reach, straggling cheers for Bryan. St. Joseph presented a series of opportunities for the candidate to be heard. The stock yards' meeting was followed in a few minutes by a halt at the shops of the Burlington road, and to several hundred workmen Mr. Taft again reviewed his labor record briefly, while the men stood in the drizzling rain and listened.

Five minutes more were devoted to the crowd which greeted the candidate at the station, where he was presented by the station master. Automobiles were then Declines to Run as the Populist taken for the Tootle opera house, where was assembled an audience which filled An extended industrial speech was here delivered by Mr. Taft, after which the party joined the train at the Francis street station, and here an enthusiastic adicu was joined in by the crowd. Nearly two hours were devoted to St.

Joseph by the candidate. Two Days in Missouri.

KANSAS CITY, Man., Oct. 5 .- With a parting word to Kansas, at meetings here at Leavenworth and at Atchison, William H. Taft crossed over into Missouri for two days of campaigning, after which he will go to Chicago to end his western trip

Wednesday. His day of rest in Kansas City, Mo., was decidedly more strenuous than was expecter; nevertheless, the candidate this morning pronounced himself fit for the work on hand.

In Missouri today Mr. Taft will speak in St. Joseph, Marysville, Chillicothe, and Brookfield, with a meeting tonight at Macon.

The first meeting, that at Kansas City, Kan., was added to the schedule yesterday at the earnest demand of the residents of that city, which lies directly across the river from the Missouri town of the same name. The trip across the river was made speech was delivered from the steps of the public library, and despite the early hour, the crowd was even to large for the voice of the speaker to cover. After the meeting, the train was taken and the regular itinerary begun. Speech in Rain, LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Oct. 5 .- William H. Taft stood for five minutes in a drenching rain this morning and spoke to fully 2,000 men, most of them laboring men. Every factory in the city closed down to give the employes a chance to hear the candidate. Mr. Taft confined his remarks almost exclusively to explaining his views on the labor question. He said that his action in the injunction cases needed no defense, as he simply enforced existing laws. He was greeted with deafening cheers at this declaration. There were not a dozen umbrellas in the crowd, yet not a man left until the candidate had fin shed speaking. Mr. Taft were a raincoat and soft felt hat pulled down over his eyes, and before he finished speaking water was trickling down his hat and face in streams. At the close of his remarks there was a rush of workingmen in overalls to shake hands with him, many of the men following his train out into the yards. He showed no aversion to their grease-stained hands. Several hundred old soldiers from the home were present in the crowd. Cyrus Leland joined the Tatt Statue of Liberty. ATCHISON, Kan., Oct. 5.-The Kansas crowds and enthusiasm of Saturday were strikingly recalled by the three meetings in that state this morning. The Kansas City, Kan., gathering was hilarlous and jolly throughout. Three bands dispensed music-two made up of white men and one negro organization. Because the crowd could not see the candidate on the library steps, he was requested to mount a pedestal whereon a statue is shortly to be placed. "He looks like the statue of liberty to shouted a workingman. "I am for the greatest possible liberty to every individual," said Mr. Taft. He was cheered again and again. As his audience was largely made up of laboring men. Mr. Taft began by referring to the claim of Gompers that Bryan would get the laboring vote. "No, no," came cries from a number of voices. "He won't get the labor vote of this place." This interruption was concluded by is
